

Please do not allow the CBA to challenge the Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law by using the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. An unwanted call is an unwanted call. I can not tell you what a relief it has been since the Telephone Privacy Law was implemented. Please do not allow this important law, for Indiana residents, to become comprimised. Thank you for your attention.